

Family Story

Suzy Morrison

1970/80's

- Methadone programme 1st contact with services
- Supported with pregnancy and post birth
- Staff always checked in with the kids
- Reassured me I was a good parent
- Christmas party & gift for the families

Family & whānau stories

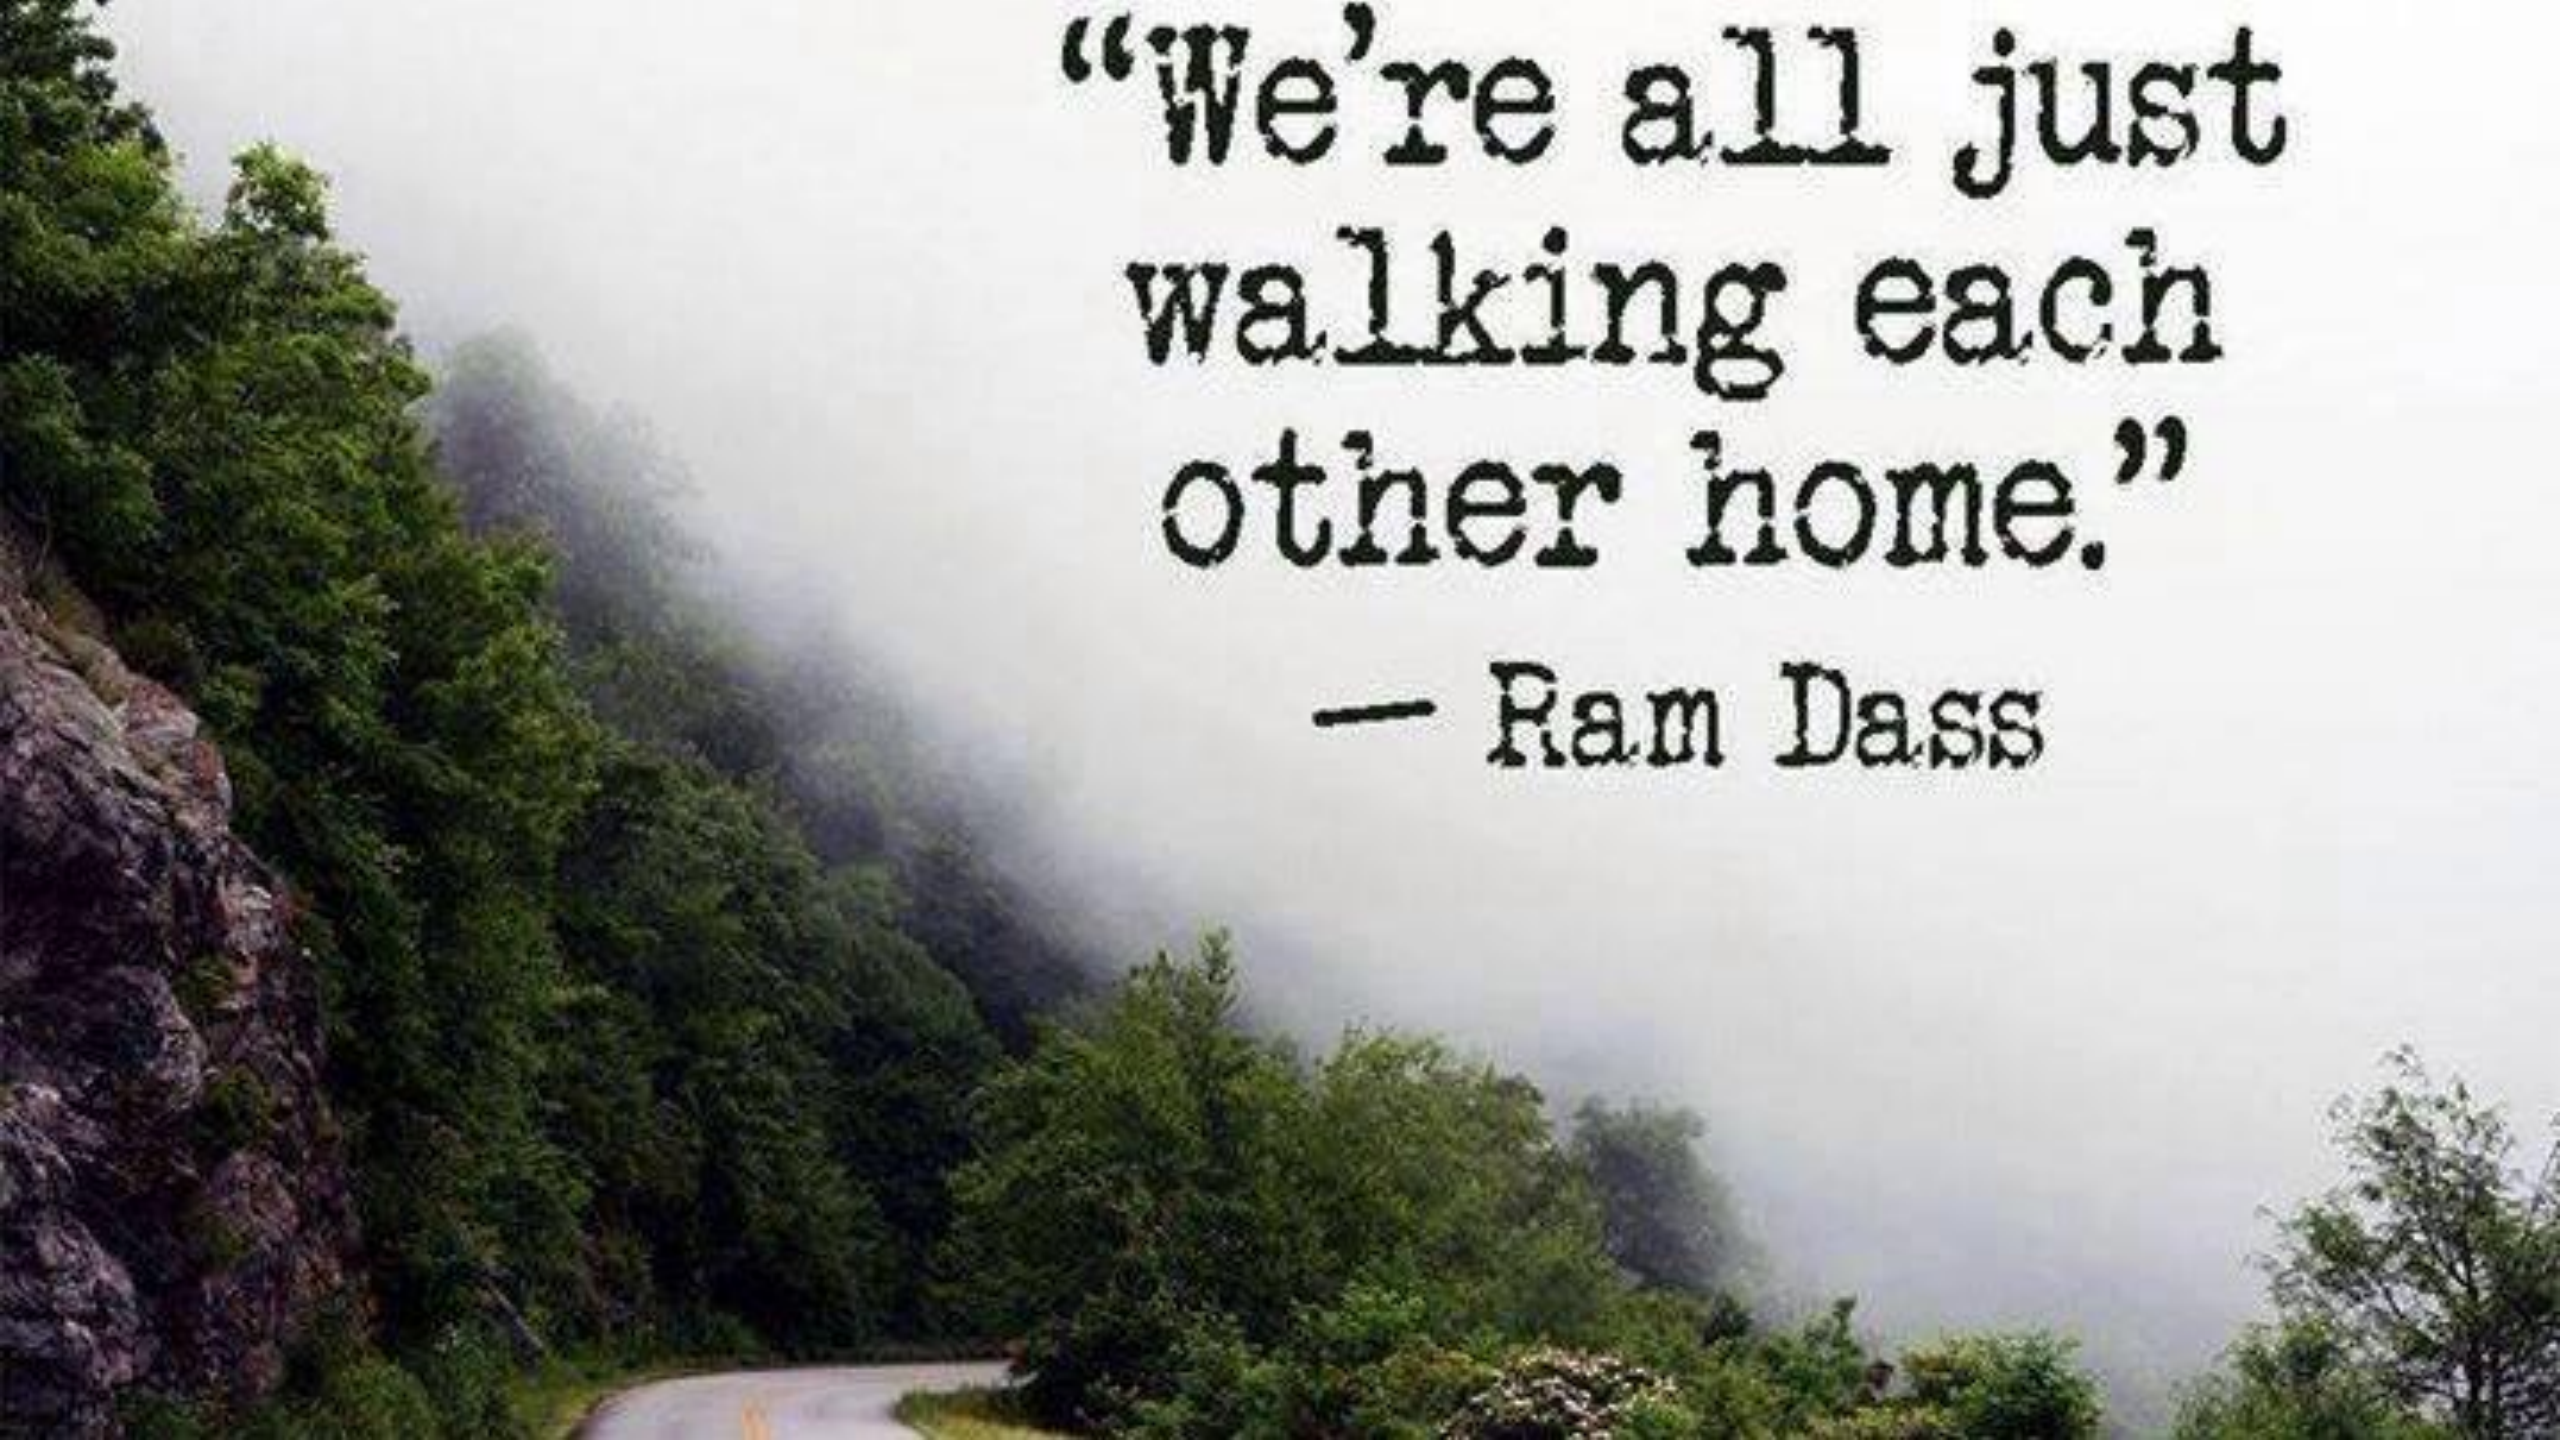

- MR Consumer Leadership Group work plan
- Decided to gather ‘family’ stories
- It wasn’t easy
- Shame and fear

We are family:

stories of family and whānau affected by someone else's use of alcohol or other drugs

A scenic view of a winding road through a misty, forested mountain landscape. The road curves through lush green trees and a rocky cliffside on the left. The background is shrouded in a thick, white mist or fog, creating a sense of depth and mystery. The overall atmosphere is serene and contemplative.

“We’re all just walking each other home.”

— Ram Dass